OUR CONTEMPORARY NODS.
A number of interviews," says the News-Democrat, "were had today with prominent party men relative to their feeling in the matter, and the general sentiment found in favor of the Democratic nominees was not only unanimous, but enthusiastic. Every man about the city building is in line from Mayor Yeiser down, and at the suggestion from the interviewer that an attempt was being made to create the impression of disloyalty among the officials, the matter was looked upon as a joke by all."
Aside from the newspaper's bare statement, we have no proof of the alleged state of facts, although we do not doubt that "every man about the city hall is in line from Mayor Yeiser down," and we infer that, although they may "treat the matter as a joke," none other Democratic factionists, who induced this alleged pilgrimage to the city hall to ascertain "their feeling in the matter," do not appreciate the humor of the situation.

Yet, withal, we do not see how Tom Harrison can expect or desire the support of the city officials, since he made his campaign before the primary, openly and vehemently on the reform of driving out the "city hall votes cast."

The 706 votes received may indicate the strength of the "city hall gang." The sentiment of the 1,64 voters, who voted for some candidate other than Mr. Harrison, and the 200, who did not vote at all, are not so clearly registered against the "city hall gang." Now, if the News-Democrat is right in its assertion that "every man about the city building is in line from Mayor Yeiser down," it means either that Mr. Harrison's friends have made terms with the people, whom he was going to oust, or that the "city hall gang" have been whipped into line and acknowledge that their conduct in office has been such, that a candidate of their party was justified in attacking their records to get the nomination.

The 706, who voted for Mr. Harrison at the primary, certainly voted for him understanding that he was against the "city hall gang," and the suggestion of a compromise with the administration should not sit well on their contemplation. But, sincerely speaking, we do not believe Tom Harrison is the kind of a man to attempt to carry water on both shoulders. He made the fight straight out against the administration, and we do not believe the News-Democrat spoke either for the Harrison-Lang faction or the city adulteration, when it made the broad assertion of the "loyalty" of the administration to the Lang ticket.

We shall have sixteen big battleships in the Pacific ocean in a year, and the administration makes haste to assure us that the move is not intended to precipitate war with Japan. We understand. It is to promote peace with Japan.

Pennsylvania's health board asserts that fully 50 per cent of the babies of that commonwealth die on account of the ignorance of their mothers. And the other 50 per cent die politically, on account of the ignorance of their fathers.

"Whether the News-Democrat possesses one editor or a dozen, its editorial remarks may generally be found lying decidedly and oftentimes close to the line of truth," says the News-Democrat. And that's close enough.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.
Tomorrow is the glorious Fourth the anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. One hundred and thirty-one years ago John Hancock made his name a household word, and the spirit of our forefathers asserted itself.

For the first fifty years the nation was engaged in a fight for existence, then came sectional strife, now the country adjusted itself to new economic conditions and expanded into new territory, and the selfish interests of all sections met and clashed in the halls of congress. Since then our interests have almost wholly been devoted to internal problems, but always the nation has been dominated with that passion for freedom that made the nation possible; has ever been a haven of refuge for the oppressed of all the earth, has waged its wars and fought its political battles on issues that involved the greatest benefit to the greatest number.

Having attained a position commanding among nations, wealthiest, strongest, most moral, least hampered, the nation has directed some of its attention during a decade to the life that beset those around it, fought a war for the freedom of Cuba, made sacrifices of men and money for sake of people of the islands of the sea, taken a leading part in promoting peace among nations, and carried forward the work the forefathers began, in a spirit of altruism that outshines the self-sacrifices they made for the freedom of their own homes.

This is the greatest country the sun ever shone on. It is infinitely greater today than it was 100 years ago in every element that goes to make for greatness. We have lost nothing worth preserving that the pioneers had, we have progressed as God gave us opportunity to progress, and he, who utters a word of pessimism on tomorrow, this glorious Fourth, is a traitor in his heart.

"Psychic epilepsy" is the latest defence of New York medical experts to the charge of assault and battery. It is described as "epilepsy without physical manifestations, during which the patient loses his mind and may commit murder, robbery or arson, knowing nothing of the occurrence when he recovers." That "psychic epilepsy" is what an Irishman would call, "A good memory for forgettable things." It manifests its most acute form during the state of adolescence, and the seat of disturbance is usually found within the sphere of influence of a jam pot in conjunction with a maternal slipper.

TEMPLE OF LABOR WILL BE ERECTED

Central Labor Union Takes Preliminary Steps

Nickel Theater Manager Makes Proposition To Contribute Per Cent Toward Object.

NOMINATIONS FOR OFFICES

One-half of the box office receipts for one day in each month will be given by the Tennessee Electric Theater, 430 Broadway, to Central Labor Union to be applied to a fund that body is raising to build a Labor Temple. This offer was received from the theater management in the meeting of the Central Labor union last night, and a committee was appointed to accept the offer. Henry Carroll was made chairman and Charles Horton and J. M. Miles members of this committee.

When a fund sufficient to start a labor temple, is raised, work on the building will be begun. The temple would be the joint property of all the unions in the city and would be used for their meetings as well as for a club and social affairs. The offer from the Tennessee Electric theater will increase this fund several hundred dollars a year. In many cities the union men incorporated their building association and sold the shares to the members in small denominations.

Nominations for the various offices of Central Labor union were opened last night and will be open again the third Thursday in this month when the election will take place. The principal officers nominated last night were: For president, E. M. Willis, Lon Crandall and B. M. Mosely, the incumbent; for vice-president, J. M. Miles and Charles Horton; for financial secretary, Henry Carroll and J. R. Thompson. The other officers nominated for were corresponding and recording secretary; inner and outer guards; roll clerk and trustees.

In Bankruptcy.
Second payment on the bonds given for real estate purchased from the E. Rehkopf estate, will be made today. The property consisting of ten yards, store houses and residences, was sold for $48,000 to be paid in three installments of $16,000 each, the purchasers giving bonds for the second and third payments. Trustee A. E. Boyd collected the second payment today.

Campbell & Campbell and Crise & Ross, attorneys representing E. Rehkopf in his individual bankruptcy proceeding, filed a petition with E. W. Hagby this morning asking for fees of $3,500 for defending a suit instituted to throw Rehkopf into bankruptcy. Rehkopf Hagby will give formal notice and hear proof within ten days. This makes the second big claim filed in this case. Attorneys Bradshaw & Bradshaw, W. D. Groat and J. C. Flournoy, representing petitioning creditors, having received fees of $4,000 several days ago. The claim filed by the former attorneys is general, not against any specific funds.

Deeds Filed.

Union Made Clothes

We're a union store to the core. Our clothing is made for us by well-paid and skilled union tailors. You'll find no "sweat shop" work here. We'll have none of it. The union working man that comes here for his clothes will not only further his own interest, but he will also be assured of receiving a full amount of satisfaction for his money. We charge no more for our dependable union made garments than many other stores ask for inferior made clothes made nobody knows where or by whom. This is your store, Mr. Union Man.

SENATE MIXUP.

Todd County Was Not Notified of Change of Date.
Lexington, Ky., July 3.—Todd county today instructed delegates from this county to go to South Union next Saturday and hold a convention in the Ninth senatorial district to select a Democratic candidate for the state senate. Whether or not any convention will be held in South Union is doubtful, and it may be that the Todd county delegation will be there by themselves. The delegation is instructed by G. P. Wyatt, and will try to have him declared the nominee.
A peculiar mixup exists in this district. Some time ago a call was issued for a convention to be held

In South Union next Saturday. At that time C. C. Pare, of Simpson county, was the only candidate, and claimed that it was Simpson's time to select the nominee. On the day the committee met to declare Pare the nominee, another candidate announced. The committee then rescinded its call for the convention and fixed a date for the meeting to make the nomination. Todd county, it is claimed, was not notified of the change, and today the Democrats went ahead according to the first program. The district is composed of Todd, Simpson and Logan counties.

Summer Allments.
Warm, sultry days, like those we have had the past few days, bring out the tired, run-down, spring fever conditions in the most healthy. You feel drowsy most of the time, indifferent to everything, sometimes have dull headaches, and are "out of sorts" generally.
This is a condition incident to the first warm weather, but it is merely nature's warning to get in fit condition for the hot season ahead. The condition is due to a sluggish liver, deranged digestive functions, or probably deranged kidneys. It is easily and quickly cured, if taken in hand in time.
The osteopathic treatment is the sure, rational, most effective cure for such ailments. Several treatments in the dry hot air machine, followed by the osteopathic treatment of the deranged condition. It stimulates the action of the liver, and the bowels, the kidneys and the heart action, and does it without resort to drugs of any sort, or osteopathy.
I would like for you to investigate osteopathy. It is a new science in healing, but there is nothing occult about it, merely scientific manipulation to restore a deranged function to normal activity, and to give tone to all the organs of the body.
The great success I am having it every day in the treatment of such people you know. Testimony I offer for it. Over phone 1407.

And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend." This great remedy is a God-send to women, carrying them through their most critical ordeal with safety and no pain. No woman who uses "Mother's Friend" need fear the suffering and danger incident to birth; for it robs the ordeal of its horror and insures safety to life of mother and child, and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. Our book "Motherhood," is worth its weight in gold to every woman, and will be sent free in plain envelope by addressing application to Bradfield Regulator Co. Atlanta, Ga.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

The Flag in the Desert. It is related that an American traveler in Egypt, journeying alone, was for his Arab guide, was forced to pass the Fourth in a sun-baked desert. At day's end he threw the camp into a fit of consternation by firing a salute from his revolver. Then he ran up the Stars and Stripes on an improvised flag-pole, and saluted the colors. At noon he saluted again and once more at sunset. When evening came he had a banquet served in his shelter tent—the menu as elaborate as possible under the circumstances. He made some fervent speeches to the Arab chiefs, who unhesitatingly acted on what he said, and expended almost all his remaining ammunition in a final joyous outburst.

POTTER PRESIDENT OF SCHOOL BOARD

Many Changes Confront Superintendent-Elect

Secretary Byrd's Finances, State Records and Coal Scheme Met With Cold Stare.

ELECTION OF NEW TRUSTEES

Joseph E. Potter was elected president and Charles G. Kelly was elected vice-president of the school board at the meeting last night. H. C. Brame resigned as trustee from the Sixth ward and Frank C. Boone resigned from the Third ward without having been seated. Mr. Boone gave business duties as his reason for not serving, and Mr. Brame resigned to take the contract for the completion of the McKinley building. M. S. Price was elected to fill Brame's place and Henry Mammen was elected to fill Boone's vacancy in the Third ward. W. T. Goodman and M. S. Price (Democrats) and J. C. Farley (Republican) were placed in nomination from the Sixth ward, all being nominees of their parties for school trustees. J. H. Garrison, H. G. Wells and Henry Mammen were placed in nomination from the Third ward.

When the new superintendent, J. A. Carnager, assumes charge of the schools, not only will the trustees, who made a new superintendent necessary, have left the board in the scales, but will the trustees who elected him will be in the minority. He will face after November a board elected, who will have no connection with the conditions that resulted in his election.

Mrs. Emma Morgan, principal of the McKinley building, was a visitor at the school board meeting last night, entering with Trustee Beckenbach.

Jolts For Secretary.

Secretary Byrd was the recipient of several jolts in the meeting, that included new instructions as to how he should handle the board's finances. A slate for janitors of the various buildings, which he had prepared, was turned down flatly. Whenever a bill arises to be paid during the month, Secretary Byrd issues what he terms "bank orders," which are the same as checks but lack the president's signature. It was necessary to summon G. W. Jackson, principal of the Lincoln building, to the meeting, to straighten out a tangle over the finances of the colored community, caused by the system of "bank orders." Thereupon the board issued instructions that no money is to be paid by the secretary without the president's signature to the check, the other trustees declaring Secretary Byrd's system extremely unbusinesslike, to say the least.

Giving no other reason for substituting the names of new applicants for janitors, in place of the old janitors who have given entire satisfaction, than that he preferred his nominees Secretary Byrd presented a slate which the trustees turned down and re-elected the old janitors. All Townsend was nominated by Secretary Byrd for janitor of the Washington building, a $30 berth, but the board re-elected James Gordon, colored, O. P. Powell, janitor of the McKinley, also was re-elected over George Green, another Byrd nominee. For the other buildings, Missouri Stone was re-elected janitor of the Franklin building; Mary Conyer, Lee building; William Buford, Jackson street building; Henry Moore, Jefferson building; Robert Hallows, Howlandtown building; Dan Alexander, Lincoln building; Anthony Howell, Garfield building.

How to Cure Liver Trouble

There are usually three ways to do a given thing, but only one is the best and shortest way. It is just so in the case of disease. People suffering from liver trouble imagine that all they have to do is to take some thing that will physic them. There is more than that in the care of so serious a disorder as liver trouble.

When that drowsy, clogged up feeling comes on you go to a drug store and ask for a 50 cent or $1 bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take a dose or two and watch results. It will not only clear out the bowels and stimulate the liver, but it will get the blood circulating so that you feel active again, and arouse the functions of the stomach so that your appetite returns and you feel like your old self again. A simple laxative or purgative could not do that. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is not only a wonderful laxative but it has tonic properties, so that, unlike so many other things, instead of leaving you weak and drawn it builds you up and strengthens you.

It does not gripe—it acts smoothly, oiling the intestines so that the passage is smooth and agreeable. It is gentle but effective, pleasant to the taste and pure in quality. It is an excellent, economical home cure, and its results are permanent. It is absolutely guaranteed to do what is claimed for it.

Use it for occasional or chronic constipation, dizziness, indigestion, biliousness, sour stomach, bloated stomach, flatulency, diarrhea, and the dozen and other ills of the stomach, liver and bowels. It is the greatest of household remedies and no family should be without it because in a family someone at any moment may need such a laxative and then you will appreciate having Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house.

FREE TEST

Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by enclosing the coupon. This offer is open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of indigestion, liver or bowel disease. Get the most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PURE LAXATIVE, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

In the case of men and moved that they not be required to weigh the coal sold to the schools, on the city scales, but weigh it on their own scales, to save them the expense of hauling it to the city scales. Most of the other trustees were inclined to favor the weighing on the city scales and bids will be received for next winter's supply on both propositions. A special meeting will be held early next week to award the contract.

Chairman Karnes, of the building committee, after inspecting the plumbing and furnace in the Longfellow building, decided not to recommend their purchase by the board. Now plumbing and furnaces will be placed in the new buildings and the McKinley building will be connected with the sewers. Fred Hoyer, superintendent of buildings, was instructed to install the new seats in the High school auditorium and seats for the new buildings will be ordered at once. A payment of $500 was made on the High school seats. Some decorations on the bare walls of the High school auditorium will be considered by the board. A letter received two months ago from the Alumni association has never been answered from Secretary Byrd's failure to have it in the meetings, so he was instructed to hand it over to the president for action.

Cured Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." "Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at all drug lists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

OLD FREIGHT DEPOT IS LEASED WITH CONTRACT

The old freight depot property on Trimble street between Fifth and Sixth streets, has been rented to Messrs. Powell and Honds, commission merchants, who will use it for a freight storage warehouse. The Illinois Central and Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis roads have contracted with the commission firm to handle all the freight left stored in the local depots more than 48 hours. Heretofore the Illinois Central and Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis roads have held freight several days for merchants without charge, but under the new rule it will be held no longer than 48 hours, and merchants will have to pay a storage fee to the commission firm.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure that distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured. So completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at all druggists. Price 50c.

To Keep Well

"The whole year through," writes L. A. Bartlett, of Rural Route 1, Guilford, Me., "I and my family use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They have given most satisfactory results to all of us." "I tone the system and care bills, malaria and constipation cured at all druggists, 25c.

IT WAS AS SAYS MEASURER

Robbery Could Not Prevent and His Horse Was Gentle To Him

ANOTHER MAN WHEED UP

That Hedie Harp near Florence Station, was a and assaulted Saturday was the only theory acceptable to her and his friends; but the major assault cannot be said to be returning from Pa Saturday night and never returned. His horse did, but with the buggy. The buggy was also near his farm overturned and Sunday morning the vicious form of Harper was discovered a mile from his home in the woods. Yesterday was a little improved, but still to talk intelligently of that. This morning he was better and talked freely.

Harper remembering except that when he reached the strip of woods he found something resembling a gun shot and after that oblivion. His money in his pocket, but missing of it. Robbery could not have the motive, and as to the theory, he says this is impossible horse being gentle. He wanted approached from the rear struck with a board or stick.

A Previous

Two months ago he stopped Leslie Haldree, a foot the same neighborhood, same place. Haldree was he riding, and jogging along when he was heavily built, emerged from the woods and grabbed him. After scrutinizing Haldree under his hat, which Haldree had pulled over his head, he released the bridle with "the wrong man, you may say."

This caused Harper to be that some enemy or insane was waiting to waylay him. Haldree by mistake.

Dr. Harper, who is big Hedie Harper, stated that his patient will recover no operation will be needed depression on the right of the skull is being drawn finally without the aid of surgery.

BURNS HUSB

LOVE FOR ANOTHER YOUNG MATRON TO

Terrible Charge Against Mrs. C. Kindra Houston at Hines, Pa.

Scranton, Pa., July 2.—Mrs. Kindra Houston, aged 18, of Hines, Pa., was arrested charged with having burned her husband to death. She might be free to marry or to lover, Ignatz Histro, who is charged with being accessory to the details of the crime.

All are Lithuanians. According to the alleged confession the woman, Histro's suggestion got her husband drunk, and when he was supposed to be asleep she poured the oil from a fat on the bed and then, she says, it lamp dropped on the bed setting fire. At the sight of her husband roasting and squirming in the flaming bed, she became horror stricken and rushed from the home crying "fire."

Neighbors extinguished the flame and had Houston sent to the hospital where she died without regaining consciousness.

Histro denies all knowledge of the crime.

FOR BUSINESS MEN ADDRESSED BY JAP

Four Trade Will Be Injured By Troubles On Pacific Coast
and Say So.

ALSO ADDRESS PRESIDENT

Tokio, July 1.—At a joint meeting of seven chambers of commerce here it was resolved to address the principal chambers of commerce in America as follows:

"It has always been a matter of profound satisfaction to the people of Japan to witness the constant growth of cordial relations between our two countries and of our community interests in the fields of trade and commerce."

"But since last year the people in a section of your country have unfortunately acted in a manner calculated to prejudice the legitimate rights of Japanese people who have been frequently subjected to unjust and humiliating treatment at the hands of a lawless element prevailing there. The right of education has been denied them; their houses have repeatedly been attacked; their property destroyed without the least cause or provocation, with the result that not only have the treaty rights of the Japanese been wantonly disregarded, but their persons and property also have been exposed to serious dangers."

"Four Trade Will Be Injured. It is to be extremely regretted that such unfortunate incidents should be allowed to occur so frequently, as it is feared that, unless they are speedily stopped, the ill-feeling which our countrymen are now constrained to harbor against the people of a single section in America may eventually have an unhappy effect upon the development of the commercial relations between the two nations, for, while the United States is a good customer for our natural products, Japan is also increasing her demand for American goods and promises to become one of the most important markets for your ever expanding and prosperous industries."

"Should the progress of trade and commerce between the two nations become obstructed as the result of the unwarrantable action of a small section of your population the loss sustained by the two countries would be incalculable."

"We, therefore, venture to address you and express our views upon the situation, confident in the hope that you will be shared by you and that you will, considering the matter upon the right principles of national intercourse and the mutual advantages of trade relations, do your best speedily to eliminate the present causes of discord and insure our common prosperity for the future."

Incidents of Japanese.
The chambers of commerce have also addressed President Roosevelt, which, after presenting the case much as above, concludes:

"We, the undersigned representatives of chambers of commerce, take deep special interest in the promotion of our mutual economic relations, are unable to remain silent spectators of this state of affairs. We, accordingly, have addressed the principal chambers of commerce in America, inviting them to exert their best endeavors for the amelioration of the situation, relying at the same time upon your personality and wisdom for a speedy and satisfactory solution of existing difficulties, and we respectfully appeal to you for your friendly spirit."

Another serious report of anti-Japanese feeling in San Francisco has been received here to the effect that the city authorities have placed an embargo upon Japanese engaging in any other business than that of a purely commercial character.

Should the report be verified it will serve to confirm the belief here that the display of anti-Japanese feeling in that city is based on racial prejudice.

See Threat of Boycott.
Washington, D. C., July 1.—Reading through the lines of the statement issued by the Japanese chambers of commerce, assembled at Tokyo, directed to President Roosevelt and also to the American chambers of commerce, the officials in Washington see clearly the implied threat of a boycott against American goods entering Japan.

The boycott declared by Chinese merchants against American products two years ago in resentment of the treatment accorded Chinese was productive of better conditions, for the administration exerted all of its power to ameliorate the rigors of the exclusion laws.

Therefore, it is assumed the Japanese merchants have decided to have recourse to the same method of showing their resentment against the treatment accorded their people in San Francisco.

Says Japs Are Always Ready.
New York, July 1.—"Japan would like the United States at the drop of the hat should occasion arise," was the first thing that Uncle Sam would know it was more than a tickle in the ribs before he got through with the trouble."

This statement was made by Gov. R. W. of Hawaii at the Hotel New York, shortly after his arrival in New York.

"It is a cent of the population of the Hawaiian group are Japanese," said the governor, "and groups were never seen."

A few shooting and cutting scenes, fortunately none of them resulting fatally, and minor accidents were all that went to mar the occasion. It was a sane Fourth and a lively one, too.

Thanks to The Sun's crusade, the toy pistol and the birded cane were conspicuous.

They never cease to trouble themselves in case of trouble. "Do you think of trouble the Japanese would have in the United States?"

There is not the slightest doubt about it. They are thoroughly equipped as to both navy and army, and have demonstrated they are ready for instant action."

"What have you in the way of defenses in Hawaii?"

"One hundred and twenty-five soldiers, provided by the generous government at home."

MURRAY YOUNG MAN MEETS WITH ROMANCE IN SOUTHWEST

That Mr. D. Lewis Edwards and his young bride participated in a real romance, with millions in money and state patents threatening and beckoning, is shown in the following account of their very recent marriage, says the Murray Ledger.

Mr. Edwards and his handsome young bride arrived in Murray last Thursday evening on the 7 o'clock train and are now in the home of his parents, Sheriff J. A. Edwards and wife, where they will visit for some time. Since their arrival here they have been the recipients of happy congratulations from scores of friends. The bride, who was true and loyal to her lover, has been the center of attraction since the romance of her marriage became known. All the world loves a lover, has been fully demonstrated in this case.

Lewis Edwards, the oldest son of Sheriff J. A. Edwards and wife, is a native of this county. He left Murray when only 18 years of age, believing that the great empire west of the mighty father of waters held out a greater future than his native state. Soon after he left he became associated with the Postal Telegraph and Cable company, and has since been with this company, serving in different capacities, but always with the same degree of energy and integrity that marked his career as a young man while a citizen of his home town. He is true to steel, and when he left the home of his nativity was held in the highest esteem by everyone who knew him.

That his beautiful young bride is loyal and true and deserving of the admiration of everyone who loves a real lover, we leave to the decision of our readers after reading the following account of her marriage. The Muskogee Phoenix says:

To be wedded on a fast rushing passenger train whirled along at a speed of 50 miles an hour—that's a novel experience in itself, but when the couple are also eluding late parents, who he made is being married to the new love after turning down the love of a millionaire coal king—that's a romance, real romance of the true love variety.

Such an adventure befell a certain McAlister lass only the other day, who, preferring love in a cottage to life in a brown-stone front, refused her rich suitor and ran off with an humble telegraph operator.

It happened Wednesday a little out of Crowder City, when Rev. Frank Beah, leading himself firmly against the lurching and swaying of a north-bound Kary train, pronounced the words that made Doc L. Edwards, former manager of the Postal Telegraph company at South McAlester, and Miss Esther Doyle of the same city man and wife.

This was the second attempt of the couple to marry.

Once before the handsome and dashing young operator had sought to wed the girl, but his plans had been frustrated. According to his story, relatives of the girl learned of the plans and one of the opposers of the wedding, armed with a 15 Colt's secured possession of the bride-to-be, took her back home and drove the young lover away.

Edwards' resignation as Postal manager resulted from this episode. But there was no faint heart about him, and he bided his time to win the fair lady. Tuesday morning the opportunity presented itself.

By some means of communication that only lovers know the couple laid their plans.

Monday night Edwards came to Muskogee and, with a friend, called on Deputy United States Clerk Carl S. Hatcher on the phone. Hatcher went to the court house and issued the license. Edwards was careful to get the license in Muskogee, he said, because as soon as the girl was released from her home her relatives might call up the McAlester clerk and prevent the issuing of a license and Cupid would thereby be given another cold douche. And the trouble, he said, was all because the young lady's relatives wanted her to marry young Rusty, the son of a millionaire coal magnate of South McAlester, who was just back from college. And this was contrary to the girl's wishes.

The plans worked out in perfection. Next day Miss Doyle slipped out of McAlester on the afternoon Kary train. Edwards left Muskogee on the flyer. The two met in Crowder City. Rev. Frank Beah was secured to tie the knot and the ceremony took place soon after the train left Crowder City.

After a brief wedding trip the pair expect to return to McAlester and ask for parental forgiveness.

The affair has been kept quiet as long as possible, but the story leaked out yesterday and all who heard it are giving the newly married couple their best wishes.

Miss Doyle, who is the daughter of Edmund H. Doyle, is a prominent young society woman and is well known in Muskogee, Tulsa and Sapulpa.

How patriotic day and night when the heart of a man near Muskogee.

The wedding ceremony was held yesterday afternoon. The witnesses to serve and Magistrate Emery will not give out the names until they have been landed, from fear of their taking warning and leaving the city. One of the men who took part in the game gave names of the others to Magistrate.

Bean Growers to Organize—Plans Will Be Completed.

Saginaw, Mich., July 2.—The welfare and happiness of Boston will receive a hard blow if the Michigan branch of the American Society of Equity puts into effect a plea now being discussed. Michigan as is explained by the promoters of the movement, yields a large influence in the bean industry and it is now proposed by the society to thoroughly organize the bean growers with a view of securing a higher price for their products. It is planned also to organize the potato growers along the same lines. According to Secretary E. N. Hall the plans will be completed at the state convention of the society, which will be in session here during the next two days. The society reports that its membership is rapidly increasing throughout the state.

VENUS INHABITED PLANET.
SAYS CHICAGO PROFESSOR

More Likely Than Mars to be Home of Human Beings—Atmosphere is Like That of North.

Venus map possess a population of human beings and a civilization just as well as the earth. In fact, it is likely that Venus, more than Mars or any other planet besides the earth, has an atmosphere in which human beings may thrive and develop a life. This is according to the theory of Prof. Forest Ray Moulton, of the University of Chicago, as given in a lecture yesterday to summer students on "The Relation of the Earth to the Other Planets."

"The atmosphere around Venus, as near as we can tell, is much like that of the earth," he said, "it is more similar to that of the earth than of any other planet."

"It is impossible for me to say anything about Mars in respect to life on this planet. If there are inhabitants on Mars they probably are more developed, more advanced intellectually and physically, than the people of the earth are."

Prof. Moulton also characterized as absurd a more or less popular theory that the earth and Mars might communicate with each other by means of bonfires or electricity.

MAN FORGETS WOUNDS
ASSISTING DYING DOG.

Vineland N. J., July 2.—While Ralph Barber, of Millville, was driving here, his pet terrier was run over and its back broken. Barber picked the dog up and was tearfully caressing it, when the animal sank its teeth into his face and refused to let go. The teeth narrowly escaped his eyeball, but Barber insisted on having the dog chloroformed before he would allow Doctor Cunningham to cauterize his wounds.

A New Health Discovery.
In Harper's Magazine for July Prof. Robert Kennedy Duncan describes a discovery which promises to be of immense value in healing diseases. The discovery that deadly microbes may be of vast good, by inoculation. The article is one of this writer's series on "The Chemistry of Commerce," and tells of the wonderful experiments and investigations of the English professor who has discovered the secret of what are called "opsonins"—an opsonin being a substance occurring in the liquid blood plasma that renders microbes susceptible of being taken up by corpuscles. The methods and results seem miraculous, for the very things which, when introduced into the human system, are most inimical to health and life are used for the preservation of health and life in one of the cases enumerated, the patient was inoculated with two billions of microbes!

AUTO KILLS HIS ROOSTER.

FAIRMER HAS CAR DESTROYED.

Bolivar, Tenn., July 2.—Earls, because a touring car driven by Frank Clark, of Peoria, Ill., had the over and killed a pet bantam rooster, Sam Farmer, an aged, few living in the northern part of the county, summoned his father, who is said to have ordered a complete destruction of the car was model just purchased by Clark when trip from Peoria to Gulfport.

Clark reached Bolivar, a passenger on the first train for Peoria. He refused to talk to the press, but intends to seek courts.

Farmer is accused of shooting Clark and commanding him to stop after the accident which killed the chicken.

"BICYCLE RAILWAY" TO BE EAST

Inventor Says It Will Cut Time Between Boston and Chicago.

Boston, Mass., July 2.—E. Moody Boynton, who has just received a charter to build a "bicycle railway" of his own invention, today predicted that in time, if his scheme is adopted, as he believes it will, the trip from Boston to Chicago will be made in 24 hours.

Miners Adopt Socialism.

Denver, Col., July 2.—By a vote of 283 to 6, the convention of the Western Federation of Miners today adopted a new preamble to the constitution and by-laws of the federation, which in effect pledges all the members to socialism. It is the announced intention of the leaders of the federation to call a convention at Chicago for the purpose of organizing an industrial and political party which will place a ticket in nomination for the next national convention. The Western Federation of Miners and the Brewery Workers' union, it is expected, will form the cornerstone of the new national organization.

Head of Love Child in Jail.

Logansport, Ind., July 2.—Joseph Gates, aged 45, the founder of a secret religious cult, whose basic doctrine is that "every man shall have seven girls clinging to his coat tails," is in jail here to face a charge, brought by Margaret Haller, a 13-year-old girl. The girl testified to the state's attorney that she and six other girls, none older than herself, had been to Gates' room.

Woman 74 Rides a Bicycle.

Chicago, July 2.—Mrs. Frances Marion Reynolds, No. 528 Woodbine avenue, Oak Park, celebrated her seventy-first birthday today by taking a ten-mile ride on her bicycle. For ten years she has been an enthusiastic cyclist, riding every fair day.

SHOW Capricious Situation in Business World on Account of Crop Conditions Everywhere.

American business intelligence stands today, as it were, on a point of perspective, taking a glance both backward at the six months that have passed, and forward to the six months to come. It has been in the last quarter of the first six months, a trying time for the business world, a time of cool investigation of the causes of the most remarkable six months, industrial conditions have known in several years. The inconspicuous situation of a positive falling off in the consumption of wealth as well as in its production, with a volume of business that shows little or no decrease over the corresponding period of last year, has been faced and American business intelligence has found the solution.

It was realized that the only explanation of such a situation must be found in the general rise in the level of values. For business conditions to remain normal in volume in the face of decreased sales could be accounted for only by a rise in prices equal to the falling off in sales. Had the prices of dry goods, shoes, clothing and nearly every other commodity remained on the same level as in 1906, the volume of business for retail and wholesale houses would have shown no loss a falling off than 25 per cent. But to cover up these poor sales, a rise in prices averaging 25 per cent has been experienced in almost every line. It is easy for business intelligence to understand prosperous conditions where they are the result simply of an increase in the production of wealth, but when this increase has not been made, and when the consumption has been impaired seriously, for the volume to remain equal with the preceding normal conditions, was a situation that has had no parallel in several years in the United States. It could be explained only by a rise in prices equal to the falling off in sales.

Local conditions.

Paducah wholesale and retail houses have borne their share of the adverse conditions. Few of them will show a decrease in the volume of business, yet the sales have been fewer and the amount purchased smaller. They thought anticipating the increase in business that seemed certain before the weather upset calculations, and they will carry large stocks over, but their balance sheets for the first six months will show that they made as much money as they did in the corresponding six months of 1906. The business world has been worried over the situation but the failure of their fears to materialize into loss of profits, with the somewhat brighter outlook, has given a distinct impulse of buoyancy to conditions.

Said a prominent merchant this morning: "It is generally supposed that the farmer is always grumbling. He frequently is, but do you realize that every week, the outlook on the farm is different? He simply tells you the particular outlook he has at the time of speaking, and I am inclined to think that Americans generally take a very short view of things. Imagine what a state of mind we would be in if the doctor told us every hour the condition of the patient. The variations for good and bad are frequent while the general trend may be favorable."

There is one chance for the backward conditions to right themselves before the end of the year. A late fall will give the opportunity needed to mature the backward crops, and the fact that an unusually backward spring has been experienced, rather indicates that a late fall will follow. If an early frost with cold weather comes next fall, the shortage in crops apparent now will be a reality and the business world will suffer. Business men are taking all possibilities into consideration and are handling their business accordingly.

Tobacco

Tobacco has been one main support in western Kentucky through the otherwise adverse conditions. Paducah has made a record in sales that will draw future attention to this part of the state. The rise in prices in this commodity is illustrated by the fact that the manufacturers could sell their trash tobacco now at the same prices that they bought the whole crop. The outlook for a continued good market for tobacco is promising.

Corn will be harvested in sufficient quantities if the farmers can get a few weeks of hot weather without too much rain. The prospect in this crop is much better than it was thirty days ago. Cotton, however, is in a poor way in West Tennessee and other territory worked by Paducah wholesale and manufacturing houses, and it is in that country that they have felt the greatest slacking in business. The sales they are making now are being subjected to a heavy discount order.

Only a man was found today who had been injured by a blank cartridge from a pistol yesterday. Children seem to have had warning of the danger and to have been careful in their use. Mr. Leo Tisk, 326 North Sixth street, accidentally discharged his pistol. 300 rounds loaded with blank cartridge, 100 rounds of powder.

Dr. HAYWOOD.—Court convened today in order to give defense in the Haywood case. A lively legal coming next week when the evidence is presented.

A LEMON

HANDED PHILADELPHIA BY HER EXECUTIVE.

City Takes Stock in Traction Line,
When That Institution Is Going Down Hill.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 3.—Poor old Philadelphia was forced today
into a most unwilling partnership with the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company, which monopolizes its streets, to save that monopoly from bankruptcy.

Given away by Mayor John Meyburn and the ceremony breathlessly ratified by the council, the city henceforth will share all the Rapid Transit system's debts, provide it with credit, remove it from all danger of competition and of municipal ownership, and get in return half the net profits after per cent. dividends have been paid. While in other words, is nothing. The Rapid Transit company has never shown enough profits for dividends after its immense fixed charges have been met,
and probably never will.

Hardly had the ink on the signatures to the agreement dried than the city was handed still other lemons
in the shape of its representatives on the board of directors. Clarence Wolf, banker and broker, politician, financier, and an old franchise connoisseur, was appointed one of these watchdogs over Philadelphia's interest. Mr. Wolf should be an expert, as he is a large owner of Rapid Transit stock, which he bought at a much higher price than it is selling for now and on which, since then he has paid a couple of $5 share assessments. The other city guardian, W. H. Carpenter, is a director in Mayor Reuburn's bank, the Union National.

People Protest in Vain.
There is a lot of protesting being done by Philadelphians, but it doesn't make any difference. Their protests won't even be heard. They can't get in the newspapers. It was not so long ago that the papers were simply running over with protests against the Rapid Transit's rotten service and management. Suddenly all this changed and the newspapers became dumb, simultaneously and absolutely, at the bidding of "leading citizens" and merchants. This reversal came as an awful shock to their misguided readers. At first they could not understand it and they could not change it. Objections were also in vain before councils and mayor.

In a nutshell this is the situation:
The city gives up all its rights to take back the franchises to the city streets, all of which are in possession of the Rapid Transit company, gives up its right to compel the company to place its wires underground;
confirms all franchises ever made
and so restores the credit of the company; gives up all its license fees and perquisites from the traction company; and the traction company is released from all obligations to clean, pave, and repair streets.

It will cost the city alone for repairing, that the traction company did before the "partnership", about $1,000,000 a year.

The Bird of Liberty.

Uncle Sam published recently a biography of the American eagle, the bird of liberty. It was issued by the department of agriculture, and written by H. C. Oberholser, assistant ornithologist of the biological survey.
The American eagle differs from the German, the Austrian, the Russian,
the Napoleonic and the Roman eagles in that they were birds of prey, while ours is, as Historian Bancroft says,
"the emblem of that strength which uses victory only for peace."

The eagle was adopted by congress on June 20, 1872, as the national emblem of the United States, and the great seal of the government was made to bear the famous bird displayed upon it.

In America we have four kinds of eagles, only two of which—the golden and the bald—are met with frequently in their haunts. The term bald originated from its white head,
which at a distance gives an erroneous appearance of baldness.

The government ornithologist says that our eagles are nothing more than large hawks. Few birds exceed, or even equal them in duration of life for they reach the age sometimes of nearly 100 years. Usually they are not sociable, but live singly or in pairs, and dwell in the wild places of all kinds of country, from tropical deserts to the Arctic regions.

In their search for food, they often wander far, and emboldened by hunger even approach the abodes of man.
In some story books and newspaper articles eagles have many times been accused of carrying off young children, but Mr. Oberholser says that nearly all such tales are without foundation.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

(Concluded from First Page.)

field in time to capture all the events and Paducah throats will cheer them to victory.

Knights of Pythias.
Turning their eyes to the cool
shade of the woods with a mysterious cave trip to add zest, the Knights of Pythias have carried their celebration away from the city and they will carry many hundreds of persons with them. The steamer Dick Fowler will handle the crowds to Owen's cave for this celebration and on the grounds
the visitors will find the most patriotic program of any celebration in this end of the state. The declaration of independence will be read and an oration will be delivered on the 4th of July. The cave will be explored as will the woods and many steady affairs are expected to be brought to the point of popping the question. A picnic outing sets young men's and women's fancies to thoughts of housekeeping.

On the second trip the boat will leave the wharf at 1:00 p. m., instead of 11:30 as previously announced.
This will enable those who cannot get away before noon to go and enjoy the best part of the day in pleasure.
Hon. A. V. Martin will deliver an oration on "Our National Holiday," and Rev. George W. Banks will speak on Pythianism. Other talks will be made by citizens and members of the order. At the completion of the program a number of athletic events will be pulled off, prizes being offered to successful participants.

At Metropolis.
Not caring either to play second fiddle in the way of celebrations in Paducah, the Red Men have thrown in their lots with Metropolis and this historic spot will be augmented
in population for a hundred or more Paducahans. It was the intention to make this meeting a place to organize an interstate association of Kentucky, Illinois and Missouri. The steamer George Cowling will handle
the Red Men's end of the day's carrying business, trips being made at frequent intervals during the day and night. At all the out-of-town receptions all day and most of the night can be put in.

At Murray.
Murray did not care to see its whole population migrate to other towns so a rousing old-fashioned country barbecue that will almost bring up the shade of Daniel Boone,
will be given and many Paducahans who lived in the good old town in their early days will go down to shake hands and recall reminiscences. Old fiddlers will play for the crowds' applause, and numerous purely country amusements will make the day memorable.

Paducah Woodmen Coming.
Paducah, Ill., July 3.—Paducah's Woodmen of the World have been disappointed in being unable to procure another boat to take them on their Fourth of July excursion to Paducah. They had engaged the steamer Louisiana but that boat broke her contract. They have now decided to go by rail, leaving here at 6 a. m.

tomorrow (Thursday)
4th.—Cairo Bulletin.

Swapping Population.
But if Paducah will find attractions in the country, it is expected that the country will find greater attractions in the city and the swap in population will redound to the city's advantage. The reception committee of the W. O. W. have heard from enough of the surrounding towns to indicate a large attendance
at their Wallace park celebration.
Altogether the day will be more generally enjoyed than it has in many years. A wide choice of attractions will give every taste an opportunity to find something to its liking and the railroads consequently expect the greatest Fourth of July traffic they have ever handled.

Because papa is prosperous this year, the small boy will get more money to spend on fireworks and a larger interest in this line is expected by the dealers. The doctors will be the only citizens who will work on the Fourth and they know that with no toy pistol ordinance, they may have to do some work afterward.
Private picnic parties will make the woods around Paducah alive on that day.

H. C. RHODES RETURNS
FROM MOTHER'S FUNERAL.

Mr. H. C. Rhodes, of Rhodes-Burford company, returned home last night from Evansville, after attending the bedside and burial of his mother, Mrs. Mary Rhodes. Mr.
Rhodes was called to Evansville last week by the serious illness of his mother and she sank gradually until death Sunday morning at 5 o'clock.
The burial took place Monday afternoon, Mrs. Rhodes was ill of stomach trouble and was 60 years old.
She left only one son.

Pearls Tomorrow.
The Pearls will meet the Metropolitan High school team tomorrow for a double header. Dunbar will be worked in the box the first game and County in the second game.

MR. H. C. HOOVER RETURNS TO THE PADUCAH OFFICE.

Mr. H. C. Hoover, of this city, who has been connected with the Romington Typewriter company for several years, will return to Paducah in a short time. Until two months ago
Mr. Hoover had charge of the Paducah office of the company in which he made a fine record, and was transferred to Memphis. Mr. Hoover resigned his position in Memphis and a transfer was arranged through the New York office that Mr. Hoover should return to Paducah and take charge of the local agency again.

When a man is engaged he goes around looking for the costly things,
when married he hunts the cheap
ones.
